- (3) the statement of reasons contains statements which are obviously false or misleading in material respects or defamatory;

The information shall comply with the principles of conscientious and accurate reporting.

In accordance with § 131 (3) AktG the Board of Management may refuse to provide information,

- (1) if, according to sound business judgement, such information is likely to cause considerable damage to the Company or an affiliated company;
- (2) if such information relates to tax valuations or the amount of individual taxes;
- (3) on the difference between the value at which items are shown in the Company Financial Statements and a higher value of such items, unless the Annual General Meeting is to approve the Company Financial Statements;
- (4) on the accounting policies, if disclosure of such accounting policies in the notes to the financial statements suffices to provide a true and fair view of the Company's net assets, financial position and results of operations within the meaning of § 264 (2) of the German Commercial Code ("Handelsgesetzbuch"); the foregoing shall not apply if the Annual General Meeting is to approve the Company Financial Statements;
- (5) if, by providing the information, the Board of Management would become liable to prosecution;

- (7) if the information has been made accessible on the Company's website throughout a period of at least seven days before the beginning of, and during, the Annual General Meeting.

The provision of information may not be refused for any other reasons.

If information has been provided to a shareholder in its capacity as a shareholder outside a shareholders' meeting, such information shall be given, on request, to any other shareholder at the Annual General Meeting, even if such information is not necessary for a proper evaluation of an item on the Agenda. The Board of Management may not in that case refuse to provide such information on the grounds set out in (1) to (4) above.

A shareholder who has been denied information may demand that the request for information and the reason for the denial of the information be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

Pursuant to Article 19 (2) sentence 2 of the Articles of Incorporation the chairperson can put a reasonable time limit on the shareholder's right to ask questions and speak.
