In order to improve clarity, individual items are aggregated in the balance sheet and income statement and presented separately in the notes to the financial statements.

Purchased intangible assets are valued at acquisition cost and amortised over their estimated useful lives using the straight-line method.

Property, plant and equipment are measured at acquisition or at manufacturing cost based on tax regulations, less accumulated depreciation. Depreciable items of property, plant and equipment with a useful life of more than five years are depreciated as a general rule using the reducing balance method based on the highest rates permitted for tax purposes. The Company applies straight-line depreciation as soon as this gives rise to a higher depreciation expense. Expenditure on low value tangible, intangible and investment assets is written off in full in the year of acquisition. The Company applies all special depreciation permitted under German tax legislation.

Factory and office buildings and distribution facilities which form an inseparable part of such buildings are depreciated over 8 to 33 years, residential buildings over 25 to 50 years, plant and machinery over 5 to 10 years and other facilities, factory and office equipment mainly over 5 years. For machinery used in multiple-shift operations, depreciation rates are increased to account for the additional utilisation.

Investments in subsidiaries and in other companies are stated at cost or, if lower, at their fair value. When the reasons for an impairment no longer exist, impairment losses previously recorded are reversed in accordance German accounting law, at a maximum up to the level of original cost. Loans which bear no or below market rate of interest are discounted to their present value.

Inventories of raw materials, supplies and goods for resale are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Work in progress and finished goods are stated at direct material and manufacturing cost. Write-downs are made to cover risks arising from slow-moving items or obsolescence. Leased products are stated at direct material and manufacturing cost plus an appropriate portion of material and production overheads, and depreciated using the reducing balance method and the highest rates permitted for tax purposes.

Receivables and other assets are stated at the lower of their nominal value or net realisable value.

Investments in marketable securities are measured at cost or, if lower, at their fair value at the balance sheet date.

Provisions for pensions and similar obligations are measured using the projected unit credit method in accordance with IAS 19 (Employee Benefits) applying an interest rate of 4.40%. The computation is based on the assumptions set out in the biometric tables of Prof. Dr. Klaus Heubeck (2005 G). In addition, future salary and pension increases and assumptions relating to fluctuation are also taken into account in the calculation. For reasons of consistency, the provision for long-service awards is measured using the same method. Other provisions are recognised to take account of all identified risks. In addition, provisions are recognised for deferred expenditure.

Liabilities are stated at their settlement amount at the balance sheet date.

Foreign currency assets and liabilities are translated at exchange rates prevailing on the date of the transaction. Foreign currency balance sheet items are generally hedged; any unhedged losses arising from changes in exchange rates are recognised by restating the foreign currency amount in the balance sheet to the closing rate.

The Company uses derivative financial instruments to hedge currency, interest rate and commodity price risks arising in conjunction with operating activities. Financing requirements resulting from operating activities are also hedged. Where there is a direct hedging relationship, the derivative financial instrument and the hedged item are accounted for as a valuation unit. If there is no hedging relationship, or if the hedging relationship is deemed to be insufficient, provisions are recognised to cover these unrealised losses.

Revenues from the sale of vehicles to car rental companies are not recognised when there is an obligation to repurchase the vehicles. In accordance with the draft financial reporting pronouncement "Specific Issues relating to the Transfer of Beneficial Ownership and Profit Realisation in accordance with HGB" (IDW ERS HFA 13) dated 1 July 2004 issued by the German Institute of Public Accountants (IDW), vehicles remain on the balance sheet, measured at amortised cost, because, on the basis of the criteria set out in the pronouncement, beneficial ownership has not been transferred to the car rental companies.

At the Annual General Meeting of BMW AG on 12 May 2005, the shareholders authorised the Board of Management to acquire treasury shares via the stock exchange, up to a maximum of 10 % of the share capital in place at the date of the resolution and to withdraw these shares from circulation without any further resolution by the Annual General Meeting. The authorisation for the buy-back was valid until 11 November 2006.

In conjunction with this authorisation, the Board of Management of BMW AG resolved on 20 September 2005 to put a programme in place to buy back shares via the stock exchange. Under this programme, 3 % of BMW AG's common stock was acquired.

Up to 17 February 2006, a total of 20,232,722 treasury shares of common stock were bought back via the stock exchange at an average price per share of euro 37.47 and at a total acquisition cost of euro 758 million; these shares were withdrawn from circulation in accordance with the resolution taken by the Board of Management on 21 February 2006. Of the shares withdrawn from circulation, 13,488,480 shares had been bought back in 2005 at a total cost of euro 506 million and were held by BMW AG at 31 December 2005. The par amount of the shares (euro 13 million) was offset against subscribed capital at 31 December 2005 on the face of the balance sheet.

The withdrawal of shares reduced BMW AG's subscribed capital by euro 20 million. An amount corresponding to the par value of the shares withdrawn from circulation was transferred to capital reserves in accordance with § 237 (5) AktG.

BMW AG's issued share capital of euro 654 million (2005: euro 674 million) comprises 601,995,196 shares of common stock (2005: 608,739,438 shares of common stock), each with a par value of euro 1, and 52,196,162 shares of non-voting preferred stock, each with a par value of euro 1. Preferred stock bears an additional dividend of euro 0.02 per share. All of the company's stock is issued to bearer.

At the Annual General Meeting on 16 May 2006, the shareholders authorised the Board of Management to acquire treasury shares via the stock exchange, up to a maximum of 10 % of the share capital in place at the date of the resolution and to withdraw these shares from circulation without any further resolution by the Annual General Meeting. At the same time, the authorisation from 12 May 2005 to acquire treasury shares was rescinded. The authorisation from 16 May 2006 is valid until 15 November 2007.

[8] Revenue reserves

in euro million	31.12.2006	31.12.2005
Statutory reserves	1	1
Other revenue reserves
Balance brought forward	2,051	2,544

	1,817	2,051
	1,818	2,052

The difference between purchase price and the par value of shares acquired in 2005 and in 2006 for withdrawal from circulation has been offset against revenue reserves. The transfer to capital reserves in accordance with § 237 (5) AktG reduced revenue reserves.

[9] Registered profit-sharing certificates

Up to 1989, employees were entitled to subscribe to registered profit-sharing certificates in conjunction with a wealth accumulation scheme for employees.

This was replaced by the current scheme to subscribe to preferred stock.

[10] Provisions

in euro million	31.12.2006	31.12.2005
Pension provisions	4,347	4,174
Taxes	66	82
Other provisions	6,065	6,365
	10,478	10,621

Pension provisions comprise euro 2,869 million for vested pension entitlements for employees and euro 1,140 million for current pensions in payment. A further euro 338 million relates to the deferred remuneration retirement scheme, Persönliches Vorsorgekapital. All pension obligations of BMW AG are fully covered by provisions.

Other provisions mainly comprise of obligations for warranties, personnel-related expenses, dealer bonuses and other sales-related obligations, risks relating to the Land Rover disengagement, collection and recycling of end-of-life vehicles and manufacturer's liability.

Provisions are also made relating to risks from legal disputes, guarantees and service contract obligations. In addition, the Company recognises provisions for maintenance expenses deferred to within the first three month of the new financial year and a provision for major overhauls.

Other financial obligations

The present value of commitments under rental and lease agreements amounts to euro 1,818 million, analysed by due date as follows:

in euro million	31.12.2006
2007	667
2008 – 2011	587
later than 2011	564

Of these amounts, euro 1,006 million relates to subsidiaries.

Purchase commitments for capital expenditure amount to euro 790 million.

Derivative financial instruments

The Company is exposed to interest rate, exchange rate and commodity price risks from underlying and forecast transactions. The related risks are hedged by derivative financial instruments. At 31 December 2006, the following derivative financial instruments were in place:

in euro million	Nominal volume	Net fair values
Currency-related instruments
Forward currency contracts	1,461	-12
Cross currency swaps	777	-57
FX options	123	-
	2,361	-69
Interest rate-related instruments
Interest rate swap	265	-1
Purchasing-related instruments
Commodities	267	41

Provisions of euro 12 million were recognised to cover negative fair values. The nominal amounts of derivative financial instruments correspond to the purchase or sale amounts or to the contracted amounts of hedged items. The fair values shown are measured on the basis of market information available at the balance sheet date or using appropriate measurement techniques e.g. the discounted cash flow method. The fair values of derivative financial instruments derived for the relevant nominal values do not take account of any offsetting change in the fair value of the hedged items.

- “Allianz SE, which has its registered office in Munich in Federal Republic of Germany, has given notice to BMW AG's Board of Management in a letter dated 13 February 2007 pursuant to § 21 (1) of the German Securities Trade Act that its voting rights in the Company stood at 1.18% at 9 February 2007, and hence below the mandatory reportable threshold of 3%. These voting rights are attributable to Allianz SE pursuant to § 22 (1) sentence 1 no. 1 of the German Securities Trade Act.”

The voting power percentages disclosed above may have changed subsequent to the dates stated above, if these changes were not required to be reported to the Company. Due to the fact that the Company's shares are issued to bearer, the Company is generally only aware of changes in shareholdings if such changes are subject to mandatory notification rules.

* confirmed by balance notifications as at 20 January 2007.

Munich, February 2007

Bayerische Motoren Werke
 Aktiengesellschaft

The Board of Management

We have audited the annual financial statements, comprising the balance sheet, the income statement and the notes to the financial statements, together with the bookkeeping system and its report on the position of the Company and the Group prepared by the Bayerische Motoren Werke Aktiengesellschaft, Munich, for the business year from 1 January to 31 December 2006. The maintenance of the books and records and the preparation of the annual financial statements and management report in accordance with German commercial law (and supplementary provisions of the shareholder agreement/articles of incorporation) are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the annual financial statements, together with the bookkeeping system, and the management report based on our audit.

We conducted our audit of the annual financial statements in accordance with § 317 HGB and German generally accepted standards for the audit of financial statements promulgated by the Institut der Wirtschaftsprüfer (IDW). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit such that misstatements materially affecting the presentation of the net assets, financial position and results of operations in the annual financial statements in accordance with German principles of proper accounting and in the management report are detected with reasonable assurance. Knowledge of the business activities and the economic and legal environment of the Company and expectations as to possible misstatements are taken into account in the determination of audit procedures.

The effectiveness of the accounting-related internal control system and the evidence supporting the disclosures in the books and records, the annual financial statements and the management report are examined primarily on a test basis within the framework of the audit. The audit includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the annual financial statements and management report. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Our audit has not led to any reservations.

In our opinion, based on the findings of our audit, the annual financial statements comply with the legal requirements (and supplementary provisions of the shareholder agreement/articles of incorporation) and give a true and fair view of the net assets, financial position and results of operations of the Company in accordance with German principles of proper accounting. The management report is consistent with the annual financial statements and as a whole provides a suitable view of the Company's position and suitably presents the opportunities and risks of future development.
