Motions or nominations by shareholders which are to be made available pursuant to § 126 or § 127 AktG shall be deemed to have been filed at the Annual General Meeting if the shareholder making the motion or submitting the nomination is duly authorised and registered for the Annual General Meeting.

Pursuant to § 126 (2) AktG a countermotion and its accompanying statement of reasons do not need to be made accessible if,

(1) the Board of Management would thereby become liable to prosecution,

(2) the countermotion would result in a resolution of the Annual General Meeting that would be contrary to law or the Company’s Articles of Incorporation,

(3) the statement of reasons contains statements which are obviously false or misleading in material respects or defamatory,

(4) a countermotion of such shareholder based on the same facts has already been made accessible to an Annual General Meeting of the Company pursuant to § 125 AktG,

(5) the same countermotion of such shareholder on essentially identical reasons has already been made accessible pursuant to § 125 AktG to at least two of the Company’s Annual General Meetings within the last five years and less than one-twentieth of the share capital represented voted in favour of such countermotion at such meetings,

(6) the shareholder indicates the intention not to attend nor to be represented at the shareholders’ meeting, or

(7) if the shareholder has failed to raise a countermotion – previously communicated by the shareholder to the Company – at two Annual General Meetings within the last two years or has failed to have such countermotion raised on its behalf during this period.

Similarly, pursuant to § 127 sentence 3 AktG, a nomination for election is not required to be made accessible if such nomination fails to contain the name, occupation and place of residence of the nominee, or in the case of audit firms fails to contain name and seat (§ 124 (3) sentence 4 AktG), or in the case of nominations for election of Supervisory Board members fails to contain details of the relevant person’s membership in other statutory supervisory boards (§ 125 (1) sentence 5 AktG). Details of membership of Supervisory Board nominees in equivalent national or foreign company boards should also be provided. The necessary information regarding the statutory rule for minimum gender quotas (§ 96 (2) AktG) will be added by the Board of Management.

The statement of reasons for a countermotion or nomination for election does not need to be made accessible if it contains more than 5,000 characters.

If several shareholders submit countermotions for resolution in respect to the same subject matter, the Board of Management may combine such countermotions and statements of reasons.
3. Right to ask questions by means of electronic communication.

Shareholders who have registered for the Annual General Meeting may address questions to the Board of Management on matters concerning the Company, the legal and business relations of the Company with affiliated companies and on the situation of the Group and the companies included in the Group Financial Statements, providing the information requested is necessary for the proper assessment of an item on the agenda. In addition, they may ask questions regarding matters relating to BMW Bank GmbH to the extent that these are material to the conclusion of the Amendment Agreement to the Profit and Loss Transfer Agreement which will be submitted to the Annual General Meeting for approval under agenda item 10.

Shareholders’ questions must be submitted via the Company's online service at www.bmwgroup.com/agm-service by no later than the end of 10 May 2021.

The questions will be answered by the Board of Management at the Annual General Meeting. The name of the questioner may be mentioned unless the questioner objects.

The Board of Management may refuse to answer a question:

1. Inasmuch as the provision of the information, when adjudged applying prudent business judgment, is suited to cause a greater than significant disadvantage to the Company or an affiliated enterprise;

2. Inasmuch as it refers to carrying values for tax purposes or the amount of individual taxes;

3. Regarding the difference between the value at which objects were stated in the annual balance sheet and a higher value of such objects, unless the general meeting approves and establishes the annual accounts;

4. Regarding the accounting and valuation methods insofar as it suffices to cite these methods in the notes in order to accurately represent the company's assets, financial position, and revenue situation in keeping with its actual circumstances in the sense of section 264 (2) of the Commercial Code (HGB); this shall not apply if the general meeting approves and establishes the annual accounts;

5. Inasmuch as the Board of Management would be liable to punishment under law were it to provide the information;

6. Inasmuch as, in the case of a credit institution or financial services provider, no information need be provided regarding the accounting and valuation methods applied, nor regarding the netting performed in the annual accounts, management report, consolidated financial statements, or consolidated management report;

7. Inasmuch as such information is continuously accessible on the company's website for at least seven (7) days prior to commencement of the general meeting, and also in its course.
